Declaration of support for the European Charter for Researcher and the Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers

Instytut Włókiennictwa (IW) – Textile Research Institute (IW) in Lodz, Poland represented by the Director, prof. Jadwiga Sójka-Ledakowicz, welcomes and supports the Recommendation of the European Commission 2005/251/EC on „The European Charter for Researchers” and „The Code of Conduct for the Recruitment of Researchers” (hereinafter referred to as the Charter and the Code).

Textile Research Institute (IW) intends to respect and promote The Charter and The Code among its employees and researchers, especially among groups involved in the process of recruiting researchers.

Textile Research Institute (IW) recognizes importance and values of the Charter and The Code for its development and creation of good conditions for prospective and employed researchers. We are convinced that the researchers at various stages of their scientific career deserve honest treatment facilitating their advancement on the basis of well defined, fair and transparent rules.

Textile Research Institute (IW) declares to take on next steps to implement the principles of The Charter and The Code and confirms its intention to support the efforts of the European Commission to make the careers of researcher more attractive in the European Research Area.
